Local loon, Pete Medden, is down on his luck. With no job, no love life and nae idea fit to dae with himself, Pete decides the only option is to take drastic measures and try something new in Aiberdeen. Following a recent visit to the city’s job centre, he discovers that folk from the granite city have a plethora of weird and wonderful talents all crying out to be shown off, but no-one wants to take them seriously. Could Pete be the man to bring these talents together? It’s time for The Glaikit Showman!
