

“Best Laid Plans”

An Introduction to the Planning Application Process

MAGGIE BOCHEL & PIPPA ROBERTSON

We are delighted that Maggie Bochel and her colleague Pippa Robertson from Aurora Planning have agreed to speak to us on the issues associated with submitting planning applications and dealing with the local authority planners. They both have a wealth of experience in this field and have knowledge from both sides of the planning process.

As well as dealing with general planning matters, they also have a considerable expertise in wind turbine and marine energy projects

As always, if there are any specific questions which members would like to canvas in advance of the webinar, please send these on or they can be raised on the day, but I would hope that this will be a subject which will be of interest to a number of practitioners and I should be pleased if you would confirm whether you wish to attend this event.
