

New Dog, Old Tricks:

What we wish we knew starting out!

27 February, 4-6pm

A Panel Discussion at the Advocates' Library led by Diana Mackenzie with David Burnside, Neil Smith, and Louis Francis. They will address issues we all wish we knew when starting out on our legal careers; including problematic scenarios and how to overcome them, with an opportunity to ask the Panel questions as the evening progresses.

Drinks and nibbles will be provided, and there will be opportunities to network both before and after the panel discussion.

Cost: £5/person

Please RSVP to admin@socofadvocates.com

This event is geared towards our TANA Group members, though all members are welcome to attend. Non-members eligible to join the TANA Group (Trainees & Up to 5 Years PQE) are also welcome.

Bank Details for payment: Royal Bank of Scotland, Society of Advocates General Fund

Sort Code: 83 30 00 Account Number: 00298394